	Later for developing the writing skills she gave some topics and told us to write our opinion in 5 to 10 sentences. Also she randomly picked up students and told them to come and introduce themselves as many people have stage fears or public speaking. She guided us these are the platforms where you can actively participate and develop your communication skills which will help you in your future when you go for a job interview or any public speaking programme. Also she gave solution to the problems of some students where some cannot openly share their thoughts, some prefer to remain silent even if they know the answer thinking what others will think about them, She told that unless you come forward and work on yourself you won't be able to overcome your fear. Also, she gave a diagram The seminar was then concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr Sugandha Shetye, in which she thanked Mrs Shailaja Girishankar for enlightening the students from her precious time, the faculty attending the session, the organizing committee, the students organizing the event and most importantly for being good listeners and their participation in seminar.
